

ISSF Workshop

How can scientists and stakeholders work together to foster the development of methods and tools to monitor and reduce the ecological impacts of purse seine fishing?

Aquarium Mare Nostrum - Montpellier (France)

19 October 2012

- 0830-0840 Welcoming and Introduction - Susan Jackson
0840-0900 An overview of the recent international efforts in mitigating bycatch in purse seine fisheries - Laurent Dagorn
0900-1000 Non entangling FADs - Laurent Dagorn
1000-1030 Coffee break
1030-1130 Sharks - David Itano/Kim Holland
1130-1230 Small bigeye tuna - Tatsuki Oshima/David Itano
1230-1400 Lunch
1400-1500 Economic incentives - Dale Squires
1500-1600 Improving the monitoring of fishing activities for a better monitoring of fishing impacts - Victor Restrepo
1600-1630 Coffee break
1630-1715 Monitoring and understanding the oceans and the organisms that live in this ecosystem - Laurent Dagorn
1715-1730 What next? - Victor Restrepo